GRANDE PRAIRIE AND DISTRICT CATHOLIC SCHOOLS EDUCATION FOUNDATION

Fr. Claude Lemieux Social Justice Fund

The fund was established in 2007 continue the work that Fr. Claude Lemieux so passionately devoted his time and energy towards in his ministry as a Redemptorist priest. The fund will provide one-time financial assistance to students and schools in Grande Prairie and District Catholic Schools to carry out social justice projects in their own communities, province, country, and the world. The following criteria will be used for consideration of funding for these special projects:

1. Applications for support must be made through a School, the District or the Catholic Parish in the District.
2. Typically applicants should be prepared to share in the financial cost of the project as identified in a budget to be submitted with the application.
3. General Projects or Service Projects must be supported through the school program and approved by the school Principal or local Parish.
4. Catholic parish groups or individuals attending International or National projects or programs may be considered for funding.
5. A maximum amount has not yet been defined, but the Fund is to remain sustainable.
6. Applications will be considered by October 31 and February 28 each year.
7. The Foundation will not be responsible for any liability that may be incurred by the individual or group approved for funding.
8. A brief report of the project must be forwarded to the Foundation upon completion.
